With the 2009 Economic Stimulus Package, agencies are going to see a dramatic increase in public works/infrastructure construction projects. Things will be moving fairly quickly, with a demand for "shovel-ready" projects to begin soon. With the influx and urgency of these projects, it is imperative to have an efficient way to monitor prevailing wage, job creation and labor compliance.

Hundreds of government agencies and tens of thousands of contractors have used LCPtracker for over 7 years now.
